Vows Exchanged In Buddhist Rites

Sandra T. Miyamoto became the bride of Rollins C. Menda Saturday at the Monterey Peninsula Buddhist Church. The Rev. Akira Ono performed the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The new Mrs. Menda is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Y. Archie Miyamoto and the sister of Mrs. Dennis Maruyama of San Jose. A Pacific Grove High School and Monterey Peninsula College alumna, she is employed as a medical assistant.

The bridegroom also graduated from Monterey High and MPC, and he attended California Polytechnic College in Pomona. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Menda of Monterey. Mrs. Craig Yamamoto of Issaquah, Wash., Mrs. William So of San Jose and Evelyn Menda who makes her home on the East Coast, are his sisters.

A reception at Rancho Canada Golf and Country Club followed the marriage service. The couple, who are honeymooning in Las Vegas, will make their home in Foster City.

Becky Nishijima of Monterey was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gerald Tsukimura of Pacific Grove and Jana Minemoto of Monterey, cousin of the bride. Deahna Uyeda of Monterey, cousin of the groom, and Kam and Cindy Maruyama of San Jose, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

The bride's cousin, Gary Miyamoto of San Jose, was best man. Ushers were Gerald Tsukimura of Pacific Grove and Mel Miyamoto of Fresno, cousin of the bride. The groom's nephew, Gary Yamamoto of Issaquah, Wash., was ring bearer.

The bride wore a white satin ala-mode fashioned gown with a high banded neckline, fitted sleeves, and a chapel length train accented with lily-of-the-valley Guipure lace.
